

CONSULTING AND TECHNICAL DOCUMENTATION DEPARTMENT

THE CONDITIONS FOR SERVICE EXECUTION

Risk assessment on the workplace and in the working environment

The client has the obligation to provide:

- data about the facility, equipment and installation layout-insight on the spot, insight of the technical documentation etc.
- introduction to the technical and working process in all the phases of the production or in other words working activities.
- data about the equipment from the valid expert reports about the inspection, usage and maintenance of the equipment, insight on the spot and on the basis of the information from the occupational safety and health officer
- insight to the normative acts of the employer (the valid rule book about the internal organization with the systematization of the jobs and the work tasks, the rule book about the occupational safety and health, records about the workplace injured, professional diseases and diseases regarding work etc.) current reports of the inspectors and other data about the work force (the age structure, vocational training, doctor's reports etc)
- direct contact with the client's representatives (negotiations, interviews, queries, check lists etc.)